Visit from Author Paul Cookson

As a school we were very lucky to have a visit from Author Paul Cookson who kindly held an assembly for an hour which was enjoyed by all, pupils and teachers. Mr Cookson also held a poetry workshop for years 4 & 5.

Quotes from some pupils described Mr Cookson as "really really nice and funny" - Courtney and Isla aged 7. "Mr Cookson also inspired me to write poems and I now enjoy it" Ethan aged 9.

One pupil even went home and started her own book of poetry - one called 'The Farting Fish' which was very funny indeed, by Layla aged 9.

Miss O'Neil, our Year 1 teacher, described Mr Cookson as 'amazing' as in assembly, which was quite long for Year One children, they all engaged in the poetry with smiles on their faces followed by laughter.

Mr Cookson enjoyed visiting Moorlands Primary Academy and will hopefully come back in the future.

We would like to say a huge thankyou to Mr Biddle for organising this visit.
