16th May 2017

Dear Parents & Carers,

Meet the Candidates Evening, Thursday 25th May 2017

With elections in Parliament due on 8th June 2017, a special event has been organised by The Village Voice and All Saints Church giving members of our community an opportunity to meet the candidates for the Great Yarmouth parliamentary seat, which covers Belton and Burgh Castle. The event takes place from 7 to 9pm on Thursday 25th May at All Saints Church, Belton.

None of the organisers have any political affiliations, the evening will be chaired by Rev Rosie Bunn, the local vicar and Dr Regi Alexander, Village Voice editor. If you plan to attend, you can submit written questions to the co-chairs either in person or by email, beltonvveditor@gmail.com & rosie@rosiebunn.co.uk. You can do this until 6.15 pm on 25th May 2017. It is expected that these questions will focus on topics that are of local and national relevance- Brexit, The Economy, Law & Order, Health, Education, Transport, Pensions, Social Security and any other relevant issue. The facilitators will select questions from those submitted and invite each selected questioner to ask the question to the candidates' panel. Each candidate will reply to it in turn, succinctly.

The candidates attending are Mr Brandon Lewis MP (Conservative), Mr Mike Smith-Clare (Labour), Mr James Joyce (liberal Democrat), Ms Catherine Blaiklock (UKIP) and Mr Harry Webb (Green Party).

Yours faithfully
