Good Best chance of success- gets your child off to a flying start.		Serious Concern Absence will affect your child's progress Action will be taken

But what if my child is ill? I hear you say.

Of course children are ill on occasions and when this is the case we willingly accept that being at home is the best place to be.

If your child is saying they do not feel well and you are unsure about whether it warrants a day off please send them to school. It is our duty of care to ring you.

Did you know?

10% absence is equivalent to a full month off school in a year.

90% attendance is equivalent to missing 100 hours of lessons.

Research shows that pupils who attend school regularly are more likely to do well in the future.
