Star Recommendation by Mr Allen

I chose A Library Of Lemons by Jo Cotterill because I loved the emotional journey that the characters went on and how their friendship developed.

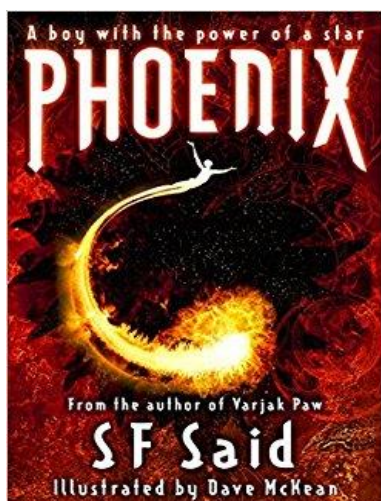

Mrs Thompson

The Incredible Book Eating Boy is an appealing and enjoyable book that might help to encourage a reluctant reader. The children listened attentively to this story in class.

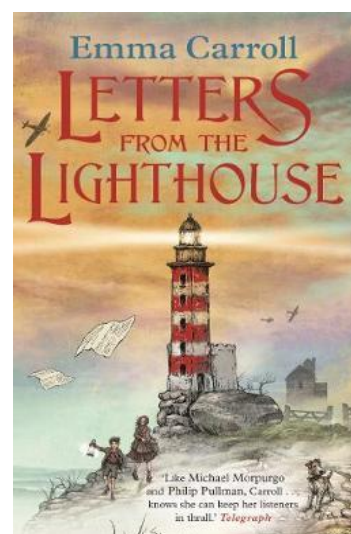

Mr Ruddick

I picked Letters From The Lighthouse because it's an enthralling story which always left me wanting to read more.

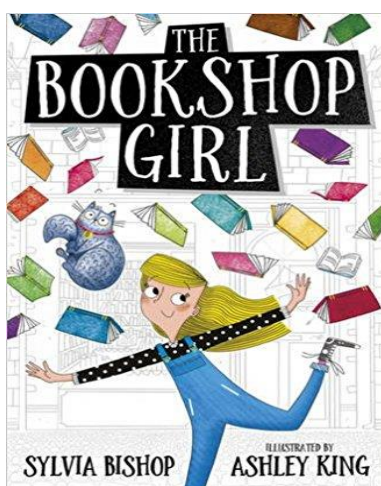

Miss Eyles

I would recommend Phoenix by SF Said. I absolutely loved this book and the connections to science fiction through the form of a quest. The illustrations by Dave McKean are wonderful additions to the writing, creating a brilliant, exciting story.

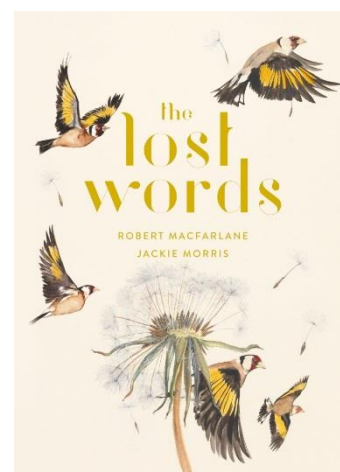

Mr Biddle

The Bookshop Girl is a fun story about a child raised in a bookshop who has to outwit a man with a very evil plan. Lots of excitement and drama, and an enjoyable read. It would be great to live in a bookshop.

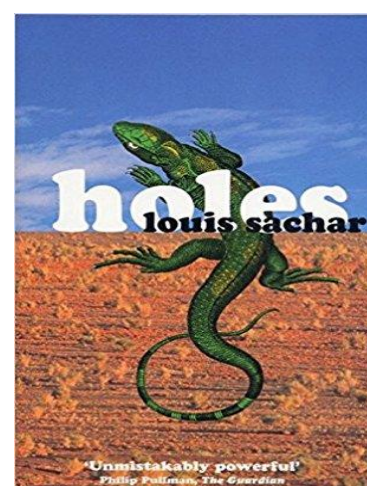

Mr Lee

The illustrations in The Lost Words are absolutely stunning. It's a great book for anyone who has an interest in animals and wildlife.

Mrs Sturgess

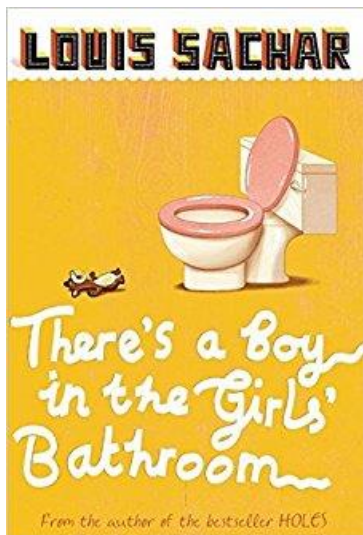

I highly recommend Holes as it's a thrilling book. The story is told so cleverly and I think absolutely everyone should read it.

Don't forget that our school library is open to parents and children between 3:20pm and 4:00pm every Thursday! It would be lovely to see you there.

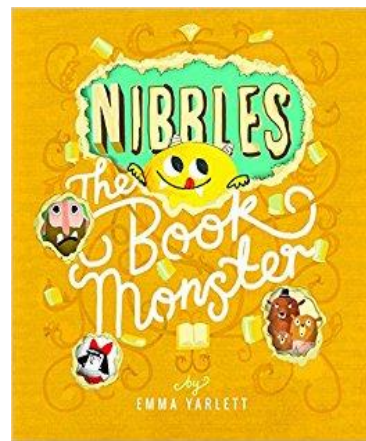

Mrs Burrell

Hedgehogs Class loved this book, as we chased Naughty Nibbles through the world of other story books until we caught him! Or did we?

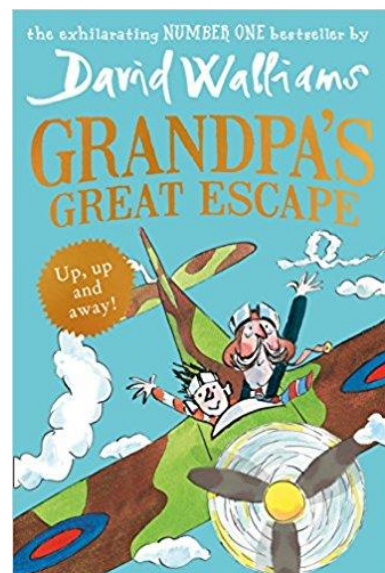

Mrs Burrell

I chose There's A Boy In The Girls' Bathroom as I loved this book and the character's search for friendship and acceptance.

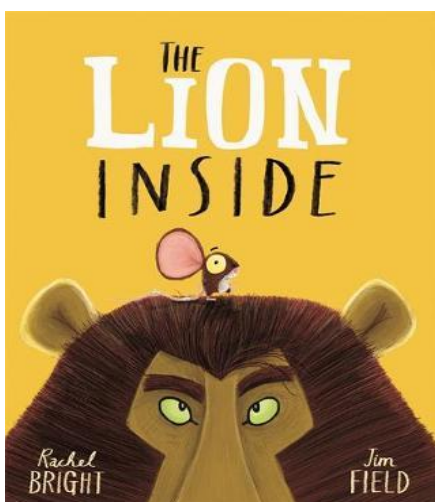

Mrs Murison

Grandpa's Great Escape is a heartfelt story which engages readers of all ages. It tackles the sensitive issue of Alzheimer's in the elderly superbly.

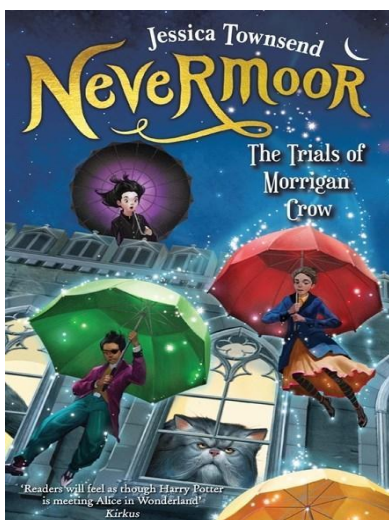

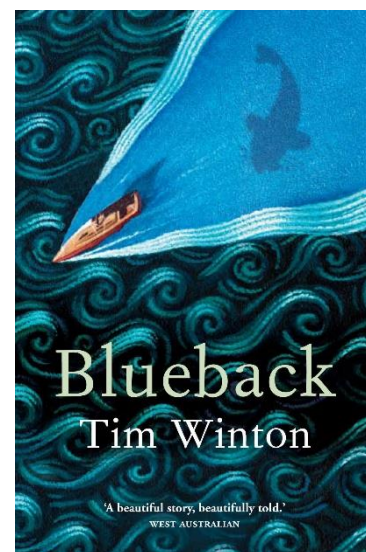

Mr Ruddick

This graphic novel is a mixture of amazing illustrations and a story full of suspense. Philip Pullman is a wonderful writer.

Mr Snelling

The Lion Inside is a lovely original story with a good twist in the tale and a heart-warming moral. The illustrations by Jim Field are great too.

Mr Dynan

I recommend Blueback, which is a fantastic story about a boy's friendship with a blue grouper fish. It's beautifully described, especially the coastal and ocean diving experiences.

Mrs Burton

I love Nevermoor. I absolutely want to meet Captain Jupiter North, live at the crazy Deucalion Hotel and ride the Gossamer line railroad. However, I do not want to face a Fright Night Trail! Enjoy!

We hope you and your family enjoy some of our book recommendations. We'll be sharing more of our favourites with you next term!
